Black History Month 2006

The University of Texas at El Paso

Dr. Lawrence A. Nixon (1883-1966), famed physician whose medical career and dedication to democracy significantly improved the lives of El Pasoans and American citizens in general.

Liberal Arts Building, Room 302, 12 noon

February 2: An Evening with African American Fraternities, Sororities, and Social And Civic Institutions: Moderator, Dr. Thomas Carter
University Suite, Student Union Building, 6:30 p.m.

February 3: “Drama as A Healing Art Workshop,”
Dramatist Karen Jones Meadows
Fox Fine Arts Building, Studio Theatre, 10:30 a.m.

February 6: “National African American Read-In,”
West Texas Writing Project
Hudspeth Hall, Room 200, 2 p.m.

February 7: “Blacks in the Mexican Revolution,” David Romo
Liberal Arts Building, Room 302, 12 noon

February 8: “Recital, African American Spirituals and Gospel,”
Vocalist Dr. Jaunelle Celaire, University of Alaska,
Fox Fine Arts, Recital Hall, 7:30 p.m.

February 9: “Knowledge Bowl,” Delta Sigma Theta Sorority
Student Union Building, Tomas Rivera Conference Center
12 noon

February 10: “Life of Ida Wells-Barnett,” film showing
Liberal Arts Building, Room 403, 6:30 p.m.

February 13: Gospel Explosion, an Evening of Music,
Union Cinema, 7:30 p.m.

February 15: Dedication Ceremony of Dr. Lawrence A. Nixon Official Texas Historical Marker,” McCall Neighborhood Center, 3231 East Wyoming Avenue, 11 a.m.

February 18: “History Day,” History Department
Student Union Building, 9 a.m.

February 20: “The Life of Malcolm X,” film showing
Liberal Arts Building, Room 403, 6:30 p.m.

February 23: “A Tribute to Great Black Americans,” Black Student Union, Student Union Building, Tomas Rivera Center, 7 p.m.

February 28: “Black In the Day Discussion,” Black Student Union, Student Union Building, University Suite, 7 p.m.

March 13-31: Art Exhibit by Andreas Goff, Glass Gallery
Art Department, Fox Fine Arts

For Information Contact African American Studies Department
915-747-8650 http://utep.edu/aasp

Activities co-sponsored by UTEP Black Student Union, History Department, College of Liberal Arts, Political Science Department, Student Development Center, Chicano Studies, Department of Theatre Arts and Film, Women Studies, West Texas Writing Project, El Paso County Historical Commission

Produced by Jawara Jefferson African American Studies Program 1/06